

Learning from the past

From the photographs you have looked at in The Biggest Family Album in Australia, what have you learnt about the past?

Choose four of these headings and write comments about each.

clothing machinery buildings houses games work school transport family life social occasions environment materials farming