

Then and now

Find some childhood photographs of your parents, grandparents or family friends, or use photographs from The Biggest Family Album in Australia. Compare them with some recent photographs of yourself.

Look closely at clothes, hairstyle, expressions, belongings and the things people are doing. Look at the background. Do the photographs show changes in transport, buildings, technology or the environment?

Compare the photographs using these two headings.

What has changed?

What is the same?