

Star Wars Children's Birthday Parties at Scienceworks

Entertain in a galaxy far, far away....

Get out your lightsabers and prepare for a Star Wars extravaganza now.

Birthday parties are available for children 5 – 12 years of age.

Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination exhibition will be at Scienceworks from 4 June until 3 November 2009

Journey into a galaxy far, far away and discover the science behind the Star Wars films. Could cars that hover above the ground become the mass transit of the future? Will we ever have droids like C-3PO? Fantasy and reality join forces in Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination.

Exhibition highlights include:

- Luke Skywalker's landspeeder from Star Wars: Episode IV A New Hope.
- Authentic costumes and props from the entire Star Wars Saga, such as Princess Leia's famous white dress, Darth Vader's menacing black armour, a full-size R2-D2 and a stormtrooper uniform.
- A Robot Engineering Design Lab where you become a robot designer

Costs

Birthday party prices start at $270 for a minimum of 12 children; this includes general entry into Scienceworks for children and 2 adults. Any additional children are charged at $18 per person, a maximum capacity of 25 children can attend.

We require there to be one adult for every eight children present for supervision; adults are charged the Scienceworks general admission fee of $8.00.

Final numbers must be confirmed a minimum eight days before the date of the birthday party. Tickets will be sent to you via registered post on the Monday before your party.

What's included?

- All day entry to Scienceworks for party children and two adults
(Star Wars exhibition entry is additional - please refer to chart on following page)
- Use of a private party room for an hour
- A party host to ensure everything runs smoothly while in the party room (1 hour)
